Maine's Magnificent [illegible]

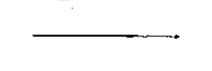
The Most Remarkable Victory in the History of the Country.

Returns Now Indicate a Republican Plurality of 50,000.

Every County in the State Solidly in the Republican Column.

Every Senator and a Practically Unanimous House Elected.

Boutelle's Plurality in this District From 12,000 to 15,000.



Bangor's Stinging Rebuke to Treachery and Party Bolters.

Every Man on Regular Ticket Handsomely Elected by People.

The result of Monday's election in Maine constitutes one of the grandest and most remarkable political victories in the history of the country and exceeds the Vermont verdict both in point of the size of the majority and its influence on the November campaign. It sounds the death knell of Bryanism and repudiation emphasizing as it does the utter abhorrence of an intelligent people for the communistic ideas advanced by the Chicago convention.

Probably no election ever held in a single State will have the widespread that will surely follow the voice of Maine. The Democrats made a most earnest canvass, and with the hope of making a break in the East selected as the Vice Presidential candidate a man from this State. The whole thing slumped, however. Maine stands as true as the needle to the pole. "The majority is simply phenomenal and includes every county in the State with a practically solid Legislature.

The returns come in slowly from this District, but show enormous gains. Fifty-eight towns in this Congressional District give Mr. Powers a plurality of [illegible] against [illegible] in 1892, a gain of [illegible], including that the majority for Governor will largely exceed the phenomenal vote of 1894. Congressman Boutelle's plurality will reach 12,000 [illegible] which caused intense bitterness and gave the Democrats hope of success. The Republicans are naturally rejoiced over the notable victory against the combined forces of the opposition. The Sound Money Democrats who earnestly contributed to Republican success are also highly elated by the sweeping result.

While Mayor Beal was inciting his henchmen to stick a few pins in Mr. Boutelle out of malicious spite because the member of Congress from this District stood for honest caucuses and the election of the honestly nominated Representative candidates, that instigator of political disturbance was himself struck heavily in the neck with the broad-axe of popular indignation. The Congressman is quietly reading the congratulations and tabulating the returns from all over the District to ascertain whether his majority will stop anywhere short of fifteen or twenty thousand.

The vote of the people of the city on the water question was another crushing rebuke to the high-handed manner in which the Mayor has undertaken to exercise his own will, and the members of the City Government have reason to feel gratified at this endorsement of their position.

Big Republican Gains in Biddeford.

Biddeford, Sept. 14. The vote in Biddeford shows a Republican gain of 485 over the vote of four years ago. The figures are: Powers 1,039; Frank 779; scattering 45.

Reed had 1,058; Staples 775; scattering 33.

Saco Shows Republican Gains.

Saco, Sept. 14. The Republican gain 68 over the plurality of four years ago. The vote is Powers 822; Frank 424; scattering 37.

Reed has 834; Staples 419; scattering 26.

Sewall's City Gave Big Republican Plurality.

Bath, Me., Sept. 14. The vote of Bath is as follows: For Governor, Powers (Rep.) 1,214; Frank, (Dem.) 432; Ladd, (Pro.) 45; Bateman, (Pop.) 11; Clifford, (gold Dem.) 13.

For represenative to Congress, Dingley, (Rep.) 1,226; Levensaler, (Dem.) 536; Ogler, (Pro.) 37; Allen, (Pop.) 4.

For State Senator, Ferguson, (Rep.) 1,221; Purinton, (Dem. and Pop.) 465; Stacy, (Pro.) 31.

For county attorney, Rogers, (Rep.) 1,131; Scott, (Dem. and Pop.) 528; scattering 21.

For register of probate, Longley, (Rep.) 1,228; Morse, (Dem.) 451; Wright, (Pro.) 37.

For sheriff, Ballou, (Rep.) 1,148; Parsons, (Dem. and Pop.) 305; Wright, (Pro.) 39.

Judge Smith's Big Lead.

[Special Despatch to Whig and Courier.]

Presque Isle, Me., Sept. 14. Judge George H. Smith was elected representative in this class by 415 majority.

Great Republican Gain Even as Compared With 1894.

Portland, Sept. 14. Twenty towns and cities give Powers, 7,143; Frank, 2,750; Clifford, 54; scattering, 511.

Against the same in 1894, Cleaves, 5,820; Johnson, 2,775; scattering, 739.

Plurality, 4,693, against 3,045, a gain of 1,648.

Forty towns give Powers, 10,709; Frank, 4,101; Clifford, 80; scattering, 667, against in 1894, Cleaves, 8 608; Johnson, 3,944; scattering, 1,015.

Plurality, 6,608, against 4,664, a gain of 1,994.

Yarmouth and Freeport All One Way.

Yarmouth, Me., Sept. 14. In the State election here today the town went Republican by 140 majority. Harlan P. Prince was elected representative to the Legislature. The Democrats seemed to have stayed at home.

Freeport today went Republican by a large majority.

Big Gains in 100 Towns.

Portland, Me., Sept. 14. One hundred towns give Powers, 24,628; Frank, 9,501; Clifford, 293; scattering, 1,248; against Cleaves, 21,100; Johnson, 9,573; scattering, 2,100. His plurality 15,127, against 11,527; a gain of 3,600.

Portland Gains Over 1894.

Portland, Me., Sept. 14. Portland gives the following vote: Powers, 4,006; Frank, 2,071; Clifford, 112; Bateman, 25; Ladd, 163. This gives Powers, 1,935 plurality, against 1,880 plurality for Cleaves over Johnson in 1894.

Deering Gains Also.

The city of Deering gives the following vote: Powers, 753; Frank, 238; Ladd, 64; Bateman, 8; Clifford, 236. This gives Powers 515 plurality, against 340 plurality of Cleaves over Johnson in 1894.

Gained 4,436 in 120 Towns.

Portland, Me., Sept. 14. One hundred and twenty towns give Powers 28,459; Frank 10,760; Clifford 297; scattering 1,393; against Cleaves 24,141; Johnson 10,878; scattering 2,325.

Plurality 17,699, against 13,263; a gain of 4,436.

Androscoggin Gives Over 3,300 Plurality.

Lewiston, Me., Sept. 14. Complete returns from Androscoggin county give Powers 5,611, Frank 2,293, Bateman 284, Ladd 142, Clifford 33.

The Republicans have elected J. Wesley Maxwell and A. R. Savage senators.

Representatives, Lewiston, Frank L. Noble, George W. Furbush, Charles A. Forest, Archie L. Talbot; Lisbon, Walter E. Plummer, Auburn, Benjamin F. Briggs, James P. Hutchinson; Turner, Almon C. Day; East Livermore, J. A. Rowell; Poland, B. M. Fernald; Wales, Joseph W. Sawyer; all Republicans.

County Attorney, W. H. Judkins.
Judge of Probate, F. M. Drew.
Register of Probate, F. O. Watson.
Sheriff, Benj. J. Hill.
County Commissioner, George Parcher.
Treasurer, Noel B. Potter.

All are Republicans.

Congressman Dingley estimates his majority at rising ten thousand.

In 1894 the county voted: Cleaves, 4,348; Johnson, 3,745; Hussey, 233; Bateman, 298; Knowlton, 42.

Piscataquis Majority estimated at 1,600.

Foxcroft, Me., Sept. 14. Returns for the county to nine o'clock show a plurality for Powers of 1,297, a gain over two years ago. All towns are not yet fully reported. In the towns of Dover, Foxcroft and Sebec full returns are received and all Republican candidates received a large majority.

Chairman Peaks of the Republican county committee places the majority for the county for the Republicans at 1,600.

Republican Vote Increased.

Lewiston, Me., Sept. 14. Returns indicate that the Republican vote is largely increased. The silver vote for Frank is much less than the Democratic vote four years ago. The Democratic so far as heard from is very small. Many of the gold Democrats who voted at all cast their vote for Powers.

Vote of 140 Towns.

Portland, Me., Sept. 14. One hundred and forty towns give Powers 38,292; Frank, 15,180; Clifford, 491; scattering, 1,871; against Cleaves, 33,050, Johnson, 15,218; scattering, 3,023.

Plurality, 23,112, against 17,832, a gain of 5,280.

We have now got four-tenths of the total vote, including Portland and Deering and although Portland cuts down the gain a trifle, it still indicates fifty thousand.

Franklin County Solid.

Farmington, Me., Sept. 14. Returns from nearly every town in the county received tonight [illegible] Republican gains and Democratic losses. Powers, Republican, will receive so far a plurality [illegible] of 1,500.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.
The best salve in the world for Cuts, [illegible]

The same towns four years ago gave a Republican plurality of 1,354 and two years ago 487.

The Republicans elect all their county officers, State Senator and four representatives.

Gain of 5,973 for 160 Towns.

Portland, Me., Sept. 14. One hundred and sixty towns give Powers 42,393, Frank 16,520, Clifford 500, scattering 2,139; against Cleaves 36,098, Johnson 16,178, scattering 3,578.

Plurality 25,873, against 19,920; a gain of 5,973.

Good for Waldo County.

Belfast, Sept. 14. Waldo county, including Belfast, gives a Republican plurality of 1,700, a gain of nearly 1,000 over 1894. Milliken, for Congress, ran ahead of ticket.

Manley to Hanna.

Augusta, Sept. 14. Chairman Manley of the Republican State Committee sent the following telegram to Mr. Hanna tonight:

> The Republican party has achieved the most sweeping and magnificent victory of any party in the history of Maine. We have carried every county in the State, elected every State Senator, at least 140 out of 151 members of the House of Representatives, elected our candidate for Governor by the biggest majority ever received. We have kept pace with Vermont and proven to the country that the Democratic platform adopted at Chicago will not prevail when met by argument and reason.
> J. H. Manley.

Mr. Boutelle Increases Plurality in Piscataquis County.

Foxcroft, Me., Sept. 14. Congressman Boutelle receives a plurality in Piscataquis county of about 1,400, running ahead of the vote of 1894 by over 100.

No other returns of county officers are returnable yet. The straight Republican ticket is undoubtedly elected throughout the county with big gains over 1892 and 1894.

Reed's Big Gain.

Portland, Me., Sept. 14. Figures from the 1st district for congressman are not yet complete, but so far as received indicate that Thomas B. Reed has 11,000 or more over Staples, (Dem). This is a gain of over 3,000 and probably the gain will grow larger as the figures come in.

Grand Work of Franklin County.

Farmington, Me., Sept. 14. Complete returns from the county with the exception of two plantations give a total Republican plurality of 1,741 in a total vote of 2,531, a gain of nearly 500 over 1894 and 1,330 over 1892.

The returns exceeded the wildest estimate of the most enthusiastic Republican. Headquarters were thronged this evening with citizens cheering and shouting over the reports received from the county and State.

New Sweden the Banner Town.

Portland, Me., Sept. 16. New Sweden, Minister Thomas' Swedish settlement in the wilderness of Aroostook, gives Powers, 135; Frank, none; Prohibition, 4. Probably it is the banner Republican town.

Returns of 200 Towns.

Portland, Sept. 14. One hundred and eighty towns give Powers 45,432, Frank 17,806, Clifford 513, scattering 2,317. Against Cleaves, 38,664, Johnson 17,357, scattering 3,594.

Plurality 27,536, against 21,307; a gain of 6,229.

Two hundred towns, Powers 48,123, Frank 19,133, Clifford 514, scattering 2,551. Against Cleaves 40,987, Johnson 18,510, scattering 4,373.

Plurality 28,590, against 22,477, a gain of 6,513.

This is very nearly half the vote of the State and still indicates 50,000 plurality.

Plurality this year should be 49,000, against 12,503 then.

The Presidential vote stood that year: Republican 62,876, Democratic 48,049; plurality 14,827, the defeated party slacking their endeavors. A similar gain in November will give the Republicans 51,000 plurality. The Legislature will have scarcely any Democrats.

All Republicans.

Damariscotta, Sept. 14. The following county officers are elected: Senator, Henry Chamberlain; county attorney, Emerson Hilton; judge of probate, Geo. B. Keniston; sheriff, C. E. Piper; county commissioner, Henry Clary; treasurer Joseph Call, all Republicans.

The Republicans will elect every representative. Every town heard from shows a gain of from ten to twenty-five per cent over '94. The Republican majority in the county will be nearly 1,500. The Democrats elect no county officer, Representative or Senator.

Kennebec County.

Augusta, Sept. 14. Twenty-five out of the 30 cities, towns and plantations in Kennebec county give Powers 7,443, Frank 2,561. In 25 towns Ladd has 217 and Bateman 148. Those towns gave Cleaves 5,882 and Johnson 4,522 in 1892.

Washington County's Verdict.

Machias, Sept. 14. Washington county, estimated, gives Powers 1,500 majority. In several towns no Democratic votes were cast.

York County's Good Work.

Biddeford, Sept. 15. Up to 2.30 returns indicate 4,300 plurality for Powers, and about the same to Reed.

The Republican majority in '92 was 1,048 and two years ago 3,737. Every town is Republican and every Republican nominee is elected.

Ellsworth's Good Work.

Ellsworth, Sept. 14. This city gave a majority for Powers of 354. In '94 it was 44 for Cleaves. To-day's vote, Powers, 705; Frank, 232; Bateman, 114; W. H. Clifford, 2. Saunders is elected representative by a majority of 350.

Gain of 50 Per Cent. Over 1894.

Norway, Sept. 14. Fifteen of the largest Oxford county towns show a Republican plurality of 2,224 against 1,477 two years ago, about 50 per cent. gain. The same percentage will hold throughout the county giving 3,300 plurality. These county officers, all Republicans, have been elected by more than 3,000 plurality: John A. Roberts, Norway, and O. B. Poor, Andover, Senators; Seward S. Stearns, Norway, Judge of Probate; George M. Atwood, Paris, Treasurer; John S. Harlow, Dixfield, Attorney; Albert N. Parks, Paris Register of Probate; John M. Philbrook, Bethel, County Commissioner; W. A. Porter, Rumford, Sheriff. The Representatives elected are Greenwood, Republican, Canton district; George E. Brown, East Milton, Republican, Lovell district; Alma Young, Hiram, Republican, Hanover; C. E. Cushman, Andover, Republican, Straw; Harlan P. Wheeler, Dixfield, Republican, Buckfield; Isaac Rounds, Paris, Republican.

Portland Republicans Celebrate—Speeches by Mr. Reed.

Portland, Sept. 14. When it became [illegible]

the first district has beaten its record. The last time I spoke here I invited you to do this and you have done it. I don't think you did this because I told you to, for I have noticed that you have ideas of your own and are amply able to carry them out.

"By this election you have cleared up some troubles for Democracy. Their ticket has had two appendages so far but this election will assist us in removing one of them. The star of Sewall is sinking (laughter) and the star of Watson is rising, but as neither of them is of the first magnitude we cannot tell just where they are until we have time to take other observations. (Great laughter).

"The result in Maine indicates to my mind that our people intend to dispose of this silver question in a very decided fashion. We often hear that the west is not like the east, but I don't think there is much difference between west and east on such occasions as this unless the men of the west are more demonstrative than we are. I have never been in any place in the west yet that I have not found State of Maine men, who, if they had staid at home might have helped to have made it as great as they have made the west. The same arguments that influence us influence them and the example you have today given them will go a great way and do a great deal of good.

"Our results are so conspicuous that they will surprise the whole country. We have surpassed our own best hopes. What more can I say? And the hopes of Maine for her country are always very high."

After Mr. Reed's speech the Lincoln Club marched and serenaded Governor Cleaves, Hon. George P. Wescott and Hon. Charles F. Libby at the Cumberland Club. Mr. Libby made a brief speech, after which the procession marched down town and serenaded the Press office.

Plurality of 2,600 in Somerset County.

Skowhegan, Sept. 14. M. L. Merrill and Filson D. Salley are elected Senators in Somerset county; N. W. Brainard, clerk; C. O. Small, county attorney; E. F. Danforth, judge of probate; Nathan Fowler, register of probate; Payson Files, sheriff; Alonzo Smith, county commissioner; R. T. Patten, county treasurer. All are Republicans. The plurality from towns thus far received

McKINLEY SPOKE

To Big Delegation From Harrison County Monday.

Canton, O., Sept. 14. In a speech to the Harrison county delegation today Major McKinley said:

The last three years have been years of great trial, not only to the wool growers of your county but to the entire country. You have seen your crops disappear and your fleeces diminish in value to an extent that, prior to 1892, would not have been believed possible. Prior to the enactment of the Wilson tariff law you have enjoyed almost without interruption from the beginning of the government a tariff on your products to protect you from the competition of the cheaper lands and the cheaper labor of the other countries. By that act this product was made free and was opened up to the unrestricted competition of all the wool of the world.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

Of Fifth Congressional District of Massachusetts

Lowell, Mass., Sept. 14. It was nearly 2 o'clock when John J. Hogan, chairman of the fifth congressional district committee, called the fifth congressional convention to order in Huntington Hall today. The Lowell contesting delegation were assigned positions in the gallery. Messrs. Harrington and O'Sullivan, the congressional candidates, were both present as delegates. Chairman Hogan called the convention to order at 2.30 and counselled moderation and harmony and expressed the hope that there would be no riot as some newspapers had predicted.

Anthony A. Conway, of Lowell, was nominated for temporary chairman by Andrew Barrett, of Lowell. The nomination was seconded by Mr. Bailey, of Lawrence, an O'Sullivan delegate. Francis B. Curran, of Woburn, was nominated for temporary secretary by Frank J. Simonds, of Lowell, and was elected almost unanimously. It was moved by John Riordan, of Lowell, that a committee of five on credentials be appointed and that they report on any contests, if there be any. The committee retired to consider cases.

ALLEGED INHUMAN TREATMENT

Sailors Put Ashore. Given 50 Cents and Vessel Put to Sea.

Halifax, N. S., Sept. 14. Chas. Westland, Frank Bates, Edward Apgail and Jas. S. Murray, American fishermen, arrived in this city to-day from Newfoundland. The men say they are part of the crew of the American schooner D. A. Story, of Gloucester, Mass., and allege that Capt. Newman of that vessel put them ashore without explanation, at the Bay of Bulls, Newfoundland, Tuesday last, gave them only fifty cents apiece and immediately put to sea. They were sent to this city from Newfoundland by the United States consul. Two of the fishermen belong in Gloucester, one in Boston and the other in Portland.

TERRIBLY INJURED.

Man's Skull Fractured in Pulp Mill.

Livermore Falls, Me., Sept. 14. Thomas Cowen, an employe of the Umbagog Pulp Co., was struck in the head by a bursting grinder this afternoon. His skull was badly crushed, and his wound will probably prove fatal. He was aged about twenty-seven, and was formerly of Farmington.

NATIVE OF MAINE.

Death of Isaac Pressy, Well Known Railroad Man.

Stamford, Conn., Sept. 14. Isaac Pressy, superintendent of the New York division of the Consolidated Road, died here today, aged 79. Mr. Pressy was a native of Maine and has occupied his present position some 8 years. He has been in the employ of railroads all his life.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

For President:
WILLIAM McKINLEY,
of Ohio.

For Vice President:
GARRET A. HOBART,
of New Jersey.

[illegible] WAVE.

At this writing we have received sufficient returns from the State to indicate that the Niagara of popular enthusiasm has broken loose and the Democratic-Populistic-Communistic-Anarchistic-Free Silver combination has simply been swallowed up. The voice of the people of Maine to the tune of forty or fifty thousand will reverberate from one end of the land to other and will cause heartfelt rejoicing among the loyal voters of every town, city and hamlet in the United States. Maine has not only joined hands with Vermont in support of those principles of sound Government menaced by the Chicago convention, but has even surpassed the glorious verdict recently returned in that State.

Bangor in spite of the treachery within the ranks of the party by men, who, while claiming to be Republicans, have worked as they never worked before to defeat the regularly nominated candidates of the party, gives a substantial majority for every man on the ticket and will be represented in the next Legislature by three Republicans, instead of three political mountebanks whose sole aim in this election has been to gain votes by any sort of a dicker and who have deliberately traded every candidate on the ticket. They have received a righteous rebuke from an indignant people. The action of the City Government in connection with the water question has been handsomely sustained. The details of the vote and later comments will be found in another column.

A Hawaiian College.

At Honolulu, in the Sandwich Islands, there flourishes a college which has now entered on the fifty-fifth year of its existence. Its first president was the Rev. Daniel Dole, presumably the father of the present very able President of the Hawaiian republic; and he served as such from 1841 to 1854.

The Oahu College, of which the president is now Mr. Frank A. Hosmer, has a faculty composed of nine members besides himself, and their chairs correspond to those found in colleges generally, with the addition of a professorship of vocal and instrumental music, and another of sewing, both of the two held by women. The provision of instruction in the last art is explained by the circumstance that of the eighty-three students of this year about one-quarter are women or girls. There is also one woman pursuing a post-graduate course.

Purely Hawaiian patronymics are frequent, but usually with English Christian names. The list also furnishes evidences of a mixture of the Hawaiian with the English race. Three, at least, of the students are of Chinese extraction, two of them girls named Afong, very probably daughters of the rich Chinaman in Honolulu of that name. Besides the English, classical, and art courses, there is provided a series of Bible lessons, which all are required to take, for "Oahu College, though not sectarian, is avowedly a Christian school;" and, as the catalogue further informs us, "every effort is made in developing true manhood and womanhood, and in cultivating a sentiment among the youth in favor of reverence and piety, and also of honor, purity, courtesy."

The description of the seat of the institution is very attractive. The college grounds are about two miles from Honolulu and cover over 300 acres, which supply the tables for the students with [illegible], and also with tropical fruits as bananas, [illegible] and the like. "The [illegible] is now [illegible] as one is [illegible] for a young man, he having an inferior room, as is proper.

A preparatory school contains 113 students, boys and girls, and the instruction extends from the most elementary up to the higher branches. United States history is taught along with Hawaiian history.

The very interesting and most satisfactory description of Oahu College shows that it is educating its pupils to be good and valuable citizens of the United States in that near-by day when the Hawaiian Islands will be annexed to this republic. All success to it! All honor to the American missionaries who founded it, and to their sons who are now teaching in its halls!

The Passing of the Blatherskite.

There was a time within the memory of our boys who have not yet reached the voting age—indeed, within our last Olympiad, and following, with the logical precision with which consequence comes after cause, the Democratic National victory of 1892—when in many sections of the South and West there seemed to be a universal outbreak of political madness. Democratic success had so disturbed the natural order that scum and sediment had become united in a general fermentation, above which was the empty froth of lurid rhetoric blown upon by windy orators rejoicing in the general hullabaloo.

All the forces that had contributed to Democratic success were in active operation, increasing the turmoil and adding to the confusion. Governor Waite, of Colorado, was threatening that blood should flow to the horses' bridles if his demands were not complied with. Governor Lewelling, of Kansas, was emitting shrieks of dissatisfaction with existing conditions. Governor Pennoyer, of Oregon, was contributing to the din by his indecent and insulting messages to a President elected by his own party. Governor Altgeld, of Illinois, was sustaining anarchy and lawlessness in opposition to the Federal Government. Governor Stone, of Missouri, was talking in a wild, loose way about how the farmers of the Mississippi Valley would rise in revolt unless their demand for free silver coinage was conceded, and the fiery, untamed Governor Tillman, of South Carolina, was engaged in nullifying the laws of the United States and defying the authority of the Supreme Court.

With all these wild, anarchistic forces in eruption—all of them insisting upon being regarded as the essential factors in the Democratic victory, and so entitled not only to be heard, but to be accorded controlling positions in the Administration of a Government and the direction of public affairs—it seemed for a time as though bedlam was let loose. It was as if the Goddess of Liberty, emblem of the Republic, had sprung up, thrown off her cap, and, flinging loose the decency of her apparel, had seized the blazing torch, and with wide-open mouth breathing death and destruction, become the incarnation of War, like the terror-inspiring female figure which as La Guerre startles the spectator from the panels of the Arc de la Triomphe. Nothing like it had ever been known during any period when the country was at peace; nothing more brutalizing; nothing that so stirred all the evil passions, and excited bloodthirstiness, even during the most heated periods of the late war. The deliverances of these men, who had been chosen to high office by their constituents, were such as were intended to affright the timid while they set the more courageous of thoughtful citizens thinking with some seriousness upon the dangers to the public peace which always lurk within the privileges and the guarantees of popular government and free institutions.

The period of that peril to our scheme of self-government was brief, and, thank God! is rapidly passing. The events of the last three months have brought us to the crisis. The ultimate common-sense and instinct of common honesty, upon which in the event the foundations of the Republic must rest, made quick work of so many of these blatant and blood-thirsty demagogues as could be reached by regular processes. Waite was soon repudiated by the voters of his own State; Lewelling was snuffed out; Pennoyer is no longer Governor of Oregon, though lingering a little upon public notice as Mayor of Portland; Stone, of Missouri has become too ridiculous to be much longer tolerated in public life; defeat awaits Altgeld in Illinois; and even Tillman, who might be supposed to be firmly fixed in the favor of his rock-ribbed supporters in South Carolina, has just sustained a defeat in the choice of a United States Senator, which is only premonitory of his swift-coming overthrow.

These have had their brief and transitory period of prominence, and in some degree of influence upon current politics. It culminated when they seized upon the Democratic National Convention, adopted their own platform, and nominated their own candidates. And it is well that it should be so. Well that they should have had, in the first place, the temporary successes which put them and their purposes so clearly in evidence; and well that after the setback which came to them when the people came to know them that they should have succeeded once more in carrying off bodily the party which had accepted their alliance and bartered principle and policy in the exchange.

There is no question now as to what they mean. The lines are sharply drawn. The issue is between National honor and National dishonor; between common honesty and theft; between the orderly processes of government and the turbulence of mob rule; between the rule of reason and the windy shifts of demagogues. And no man who has any faith in his fellow-man, or any belief in the ultimate good judgment and common sense of the people can have any doubt as to the result.

AFFAIRS IN CUBA.

Weyler Venting his Fury on Inoffensive Citizens.

Garrison at San Francisco de Paola Surrendered to Rebels.

Havana, Sept. 14.—"The revolution is in the cities, not in the country" is the popular saying among the rabid Spaniards, and Weyler, not caring to take personal command of the troops in the field, is venting his fury on inoffensive citizens. Ever since the arrests of Miguel Viondi, Gen. Sanguilly's eminent counsel, and Dr. Casuso, the noted physician, it was seen that an area of persecutions had been initiated, especially against prominent citizens and those that were in a position to leave the country immediately did so, but others who could not afford it, were so confident that they were shielded by their innocence and their high respectability, remained to become a prey to Weyler's rage.

When there is no sufficient proof to indict the party arrested, the government resorts to infamous tricks in order to justify its reasons for the arrest of the same. Take for instance Oscar Delos Reyes' case. This noted lawyer became suspicious to the government and, not having any incriminating proofs against him, the police, when searching his house introduced among his papers an anonymous letter he had received two months of a compromising character which he had shown to several naval officers and Spanish volunteers of his acquaintance and they handed it over to the chief of police in person, and this very same letter has served to substantiate the charge against him and condemn him to perpetual banishment to the African penal colony of Ceuta.

Now comes the wholesale arrests of prominent citizens, which has caused a commotion in the city and struck terror to all the Cuban residents of the same.

On Sunday, the 6th inst. it became known that Jose Antonio Gonzales Lanusa, the eminent lawyer, holding a chair in the university; Alfredo Hernandez, a naturalized American citizen the brothers Hernandez Lamas, men of good social position and finally Pedro Becerra, formerly judge at Jaruco, had been taken to police headquarters and locked up in a small cell.

What the charges are against them nobody knows, but the government will surely find some indictment by the proceedings already mentioned. While this is occurring in the cities, there comes from the country many tales of misery, hunger and bloodshed. Stories of famished people especially women and children, held back by the troops around their camp kettles in order to prevent them from taking their scanty rations, news of rebel hospitals captured almost daily by the Spanish troops and officially reported as a glorious victory over the rebels, stories of butcheries committed by the Melguizos, Fondevillas and Molinas on peaceful law abiding citizens, etc.

Molina's last deed was the killing of 18 laborers and four women at the sugar estate "Las Canas" near Alfonso XII, Matanzas. Peasant huts, farm houses and sugar estates have been burned by the rebels or the Spanish troops. The great sugar estates "Olayita" belonging to a Frenchman, "Batalla" owned by Tayo, a rebel chief; "Jesus Maria," Moralito and others.

Garrison Surrendered.

Havana, Sept. 14.—All the garrison of the town of San Francisco de Paula, within sight of Havana, has surrendered to Baldomero Acosta who attacked it with 200 men and after laying the greatest part of the town in ashes carried away all the arms, munition and horses. The sound of firing was heard in Havana and caused great excitement.

ONE THOUSAND WOOLGROWERS

Called on Major McKinley at an Early Hour Monday Morning.

Canton, Sept. 14.—The visiting delegates took an early start this morning. Maj. McKinley commenced his speech making at 10 o'clock and he will not finish his oratorical labors till Saturday evening. At half past eight a delegation of a thousand woolgrowers, and business men from Harrison county, Ohio, arrived in Canton. This delegation started from Cadiz, the county seat, shortly after sunrise. They were received at the station by the Canton mounted troops, who escorted them to Maj. McKinley's residence.

The candidate has made a good many speeches in Harrison county, which is one of the greatest wool growing communities in the west, and he has a large number of acquaintances and admirers there, many of whom were among the visitors today.

It was this fact that accounted in a measure for the ardor of the greeting which Maj. McKinley received when he appeared on his front porch this morning. The farmers of Harrison county cheered lustily. Ex-Att'y Gen. D. A. Hollingsworth was spokesman and made an address.

Mr. Hollingsworth's speech which was very long, was enthusiastically applauded. When the people became quiet Maj. McKinley stepped forward. There was a burst of applause and then he commenced his speech.

A Despatch from Mr. Manley.

The following despatch was received from J. H. Manley:

"Augusta, Sept. 14.

"To Hon. Wm. McKinley:

"A dull, cold, gray day. We are all ready for the battle of the ballots and confident of a sweeping victory."

CANDIDATE BRYAN

Passed a Quiet Night at Station in East St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 14.—After a splendid night's rest in a private car in a quiet corner of the railroad in East St. Louis, Hon. Wm. J. Bryan started east at 6.30 this morning. He was accompanied by Congressman Allen and several members of the local committee.

The party will travel as far as Henderson, Ky., in a special train over the Louisville & Nashville railroad. This is necessary in order to permit Mr. Bryan to respond to the many requests for addresses along the road. The train is expected to reach Henderson at 7 o'clock.

From that point to Louisville the trip will probably be made on the regular passenger train and will reach Louisville at 8 o'clock tonight. Mr. Bryan said this morning that he was in splendid voice and health.

THE TURNPIKE QUESTION.

The Mob in the Majority at Springfield, Ky.

Springfield, Ky., Sept. 14.—Every night the city is patrolled by special officers under command of the city marshal. People in the country not in sympathy with the mob dare not come to town lest they be suspected of giving information and incur the personal vengeance of the mob, which is in the majority.

County officials are afraid to raise a hand except to protect the town. They fear the consequence of an attempt to restore order with the meagre support at their command. County Judge Thompson has written for publication an appeal to all good citizens to aid him in upholding law and order.

The people of this Washington county voted last fall to make the turnpikes free throughout the county. As the pikes are owned by companies it is necessary for another vote of the people to assess taxes to purchase the pikes. This vote has not yet been taken and the authorities cannot legally stop the toll gathering.

This the people of the county do not understand and they have destroyed nearly all the toll gathers in the county. As the county authorities, whom the mobs blame, live here this town has been threatened with destruction.

IN GREAT LUCK.

The Use of Another Half Million Offered to Chicago University.

Chicago, Sept. 14. In the proffered use of another half million dollars' worth of property, the University of Chicago is now in the way to possess the finest inland lake biological station in the world. This magnificent supplement to the Hull gift of $1,000,000 for biological laboratories is due to Mrs. Edward Roby, E. A. Shedd, and C. B. Shedd. It makes it possible for the university to control all the land and water it desires of the 3,000 acres around Wolf Lake and the channel connecting with Lake Michigan. Mrs. Roby also offers to the university an unrivalled water course for a varsity crew. Most of the necessary buildings for dormitories for [illegible] and for boats will also be given by Mrs. Roby and the Shedds [illegible] their use is accepted.

CAN T BEAT THE "HELLO GIRL."

Efforts of a Young Man to Avoid Payment of a Dime.

"I have found a way to beat the telephone company out of a dime. The speaker was one of those young men who are abundantly able to pay all charges but who imagine it a proper thing to "get" the best of every one, and he was addressing a Chicago Post reporter According to their ethics cheating the telephone company out of a dime is a worthy thing to do.

"Go into a drug store, ring up central and tell the girl to call the man you want to talk with and have her tell him to call up No — whatever may be the number of the telephone at which you are standing. Ask her to tell him to call you giving your name. He is a subscriber and there is no charge.

The young man to whom this information was imparted wanted to chat with the cashier girl in a restaurant along in the quiet afternoon hour and he went in to a drug store. There was a very attractive cashier girl here also. The young man noted the telephone was No 4114 Main and he rang up central and took down the transmitter

A moment of silence

Hello from the young man ' Why—central be kind enough to ring up No. 7,117 and tell Miss—tell them to call Mr Light at 41 11

He was a little nervous about it. He thought the cashier girl across the room was watching him but his back was toward her

There was another moment of silence. Then the girl at central said

Why you are 41 11 Why don t you call up 7 11? if you want them?

And right there the big scheme for beating the telephone company went to pieces. Furthermore the young man being confused imagined that cashier girl behind him had heard all he had said over the telephone and he turned around much confused. The cashier was smiling wisely, but not looking at him. He started to walk out with what dignity he could retain

Ten cents said the cashier girl and he stopped as he I rotated. He blushed and grinned and paid and went. But he said to himself he would kill the man who had given him so dangerous a pointer.

THE OLD TIMER S IMPORTANCE

To Squelch or Approve the Ambition of the Youngster His Province

A man of great importance in a village where there are anglers is the oldest fisherman His ideas of proper bait, of the correct manner of casting with a rod and his thoughts on true sportsmanship may be neither good nor worth considering in the minds of the youngsters but there often comes a time when the oldest fisherman is called upon to become the arbiter of some man s destiny Some young fellow gets ambitious. He wants to be considered one of the elders in spite of his few years. He fawns on the real old timers addresses them by their nicknames always carries a bag of good pipe filling tobacco with him and is ever ready to say nice things about the old ones s tackle. But there is always that feeling haunting him that he is not yet of them, even though they treat him cordially and call him sport At last he tells a fish story the wildest most untrue to nature that he can think of and on it he stakes his hope of being regarded as an old timer before his years warrant it. Here is where the oldest fisherman comes in. If he says the story is the worst he ever heard the youngster s position as an old timer is assured. But if he relates a better one or even a worse one the youngster must bide his time.

Another occasion when the oldest fisherman is all important is when a big fish is taken, say a trout. It is the pride of the lucky angler when the oldest angler says that "it s the biggest trout I ever heard tell of, let alone see. That makes his fish one of the monumental ones, ever to be remembered when tales of big fishing are told on the local hotel s steps or porch Likewise is the oldest fisherman s judgment final on the subject of big catches.

The oldest fisherman s tales take rank above all others. They are listened to with marked attention and the longer they are drawn out the more they are listened to and many a greeny has been squelched for saying the oldest fisherman s story was older than the fisherman himself.—New York Sun

British Government s Camels.

The British government is the owner of about 25 000 camels the greater number being in India where they are kept in reserve at the commissariat depots to meet various requirements, such as the carriage of stores to out stations and camp equipages of troops changing quarters by line of march In the war of 1878 in Afghanistan camels were used by the British. Some 50,000 died during the campaign from cold neglect and starvation. Included in the above 25,000 are the camels employed in Egypt with the British army of occupation. In 1884 a camel corps of 1,000 was formed which did excellent service during the war against the mahdi. At present between 6,000 and 7 000 camels belonging to the British government are engaged in the advance on Dongola in the Sudan and the government is still buying largely so that probably before the autumn campaign is over those numbers will be at least doubled. As the camels are obtained they are organized into companies of 400 each.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Arrest of Two More Presumed Dynamiters at Rotterdam.

Alleged that Clan-na-gael Has Been Supplying Tynan with Funds.

London, Sept. 14—Despatches received here from Rotterdam say that two more presumed dynamiters have been arrested in that city The police of Antwerp upon advices from London searched a house at Berchen a suburb of Antwerp and found a number of bombs and a quantity of explosives The tenants of the house are said to have been two Irishmen, who suddenly disappeared a few days ago, and it is supposed that they are the two men who were arrested in Rotterdam

A despatch to the Globe from Rotterdam says that one of the alleged dynamiters arrested there has been identified as J F Kearney of New York who was concerned in the blowing up of the Glasgow gas works. It is learned that during Tynan's tour of the continent and up to the time of his arrest in Bologne yesterday morning he posed as a courier of Queen Victoria charged with the duty of conveying an autograph letter from the Queen to the Czar at Copenhagen Bell the man arrested in Glasgow was Tynan s secretary

The Globe asserts that the Clan na gael has been supplying Tynan and the other dynamiters with ample funds Tynan had a large sum of money about him when arrested His principal drink while in Boulogne was champagne

Can Tynan Be Extradited?

London Sept 14—It is learned that the name of the second man arrested in Rotterdam today is Hayes The formal charge made against Bell the alleged dynamiter arrested in Glasgow is that he contravened section 59 of the explosive substances act of 1883 which declares that any person while subject of Her Majesty the Queen who shall supply material or aid or abet crime under the act is thereby guilty of felony

The Scotland Yard officials say that the headquarters of the dynamite conspiracy are in London but that the London police have been kept informed of the movement of the conspirators by informers in Chicago and New York

The question whether Tynan can be extradited or not is being already discussed in this afternoon s newspapers The St James Gazette says that in 188 the government of France refused to extradite Tynan and Walsh on the ground that their offense was a political one and consequently not covered by the extradition treaty then in existence between Great Britain and France. The treaty has since been extended to cover such offences and within the last three years a number of French anarchists have been extradited under the amended treaty

The British authorities the Gazette says are therefore confident that they will be able to secure the extradition of Tynan. In legal circles however there is considerable doubt about his extradition as the question must arise whether or not the treaty is retroactive

$10 a Day for Champagne

Antwerp Sept 14—P J Tynan the Irish conspirator who was arrested yesterday morning was registered at the hotel Angelus here under the name of Garth Bell the man who came here with him and was later arrested in Glasgow was registered at the hotel under his own name. The men took their meals at the hotel but they paid for their rooms for the two days they were there Their bill for champagne and whiskey and cigars averaged $10 a day

Claims to be an American

Glasgow Sept 14—Bell the alleged dynamiter who was arrested in this city was arraigned in the police court this morning and after the taking of formal testimony was remanded until Wednesday. Bell was brought into court handcuffed to two policemen It was learned in the course of the proceedings in court that Bell was arrested without a warrant

The police inspectors with several Irish detectives watched Bell s hotel and shadowed him from the time of his arrival in Glasgow last Wednesday until they finally took him into custody When he was arrested Bell protested declaring that he was an American citizen When he was confronted with incriminating documents which were found in his bag showing his connection with Tynan the notorious No 1 he said that he had found the papers in the lavatory of the hotel

Bell is 28 years of age is well dressed and has the demeanor of a gentleman He is plentifully supplied with money The police allude to the rumor that Bell is a dynamiter

Tynan Remanded

Boulogne Sept 14—P J Tynan the Irish invincible who was arrested here yesterday morning was arraigned today before the public prosecutor He admitted that he was the man described in the warrant of arrest and was remanded pending the arrival of the papers required to effect his extradition to England

WILL NOT BE PROSECUTED.

Portland Young Man Does a Little Crooked Business

Boston Sept 14 Frank G Tucker, 21 years of age, claiming Portland, Me, as his home, was arrested in the South End Sunday night on the charge of drunkenness There were found in his possession two ladies' pocket books containing $51 20 in cash, a new gold watch, a silver watch a 32 calibre revolver and a diamond pin The young man was badly intoxicated but enough was learned from him to satisfy Lieut Sullivan that the young man lived in Cumberland street, Portland

The Portland authorities were communicated with and then it was learned that $100 had been given to Tucker by his mother with which to purchase a type writer Instead of doing so, it is alleged he converted the money to his own use. He has relatives living on Hanson street, this city, and they were informed of the fact After his case was placed on file in the municipal court this morning he was put on a train for Portland It is understood that his mother will not bring criminal action against him

THE ARMENIAN QUESTION

Minister Says Words of Appeal Should be Backed with Shotted Guns

New York, Sept 14 Rev Dr Robert S MacArthur, in his sermon at the Calvary Baptist church last night, said, in speaking of the Armenian question "The United States government has been strangely neglectful of the interests of American citizens in Turkey It is time for the government to arouse itself Every American ship which can be spared should at once be sent into Turkish waters. The Sultan is not to be treated as if he was a civilized ruler He is to be treated as the world's red handed assassin. Our words of entreaty must be backed by shotted guns in order that the sultan may listen "

BRIDGE COLLAPSED.

Accommodation Train Precipitated Into Bed of Creek.

Four Persons Killed and a Number of Others Injured.

Eureka, Cala, Sept 14 By the collapse of a bridge on the Arcala and Mad River railroad, five miles from here, yesterday afternoon, an accommodation train was precipitated into the bed of the creek below Four persons were killed outright and a number of others seriously wounded, some of whom will die

Details of the accident are difficult to obtain, there being no telegraphic communication with the scene nearer than Eureka

The accommodation train which leaves Arcala at 4 30 P M consisted of two coaches, one box car and an engine and carried about twenty passengers Shortly after five o'clock, a telephone message was received stating that the train had been derailed at the Mad River bridge and was a total wreck on the river bed

A relief train was immediately despatched to the scene

The bridge that collapsed is several hundred feet in length and contains one pier about midway and the approaches are high above the gravel bed of the stream the train had slowed down to about five miles an hour, as is customary, and was moving at this speed when the crash came Had not the rules in regard to speed been strictly observed every one on board must surely have perished as an additional 25 feet would have landed the entire train in the waters of the river

The Mining of Mica

The principal source of the mica used by the entire world,' said Thomas Padgett of Bakersville, N C 'is in North Carolina, in the vicinity of my home

"Mica is found there in all sorts of blocks, of various thicknesses and shapes, which can be split and resplit, almost without limit, until it becomes the transparent pane of commerce

"The material is imbedded or scattered through the feldspar with which the surrounding mountains are mostly covered The veins are found between walls of slate. It is blasted from the surrounding rock by means of dynamite, and is freed from all impure matter by miners with chisel and pick From the mines it is taken directly to the shops, where it is split into thin sheets and trimmed into regular forms, which are then ready for the market, the price varying according to the size of the sheets

"The average size will fit an ordinary parlor heater In rare instances, sheets as large as twenty-four by eighteen inches are found, but there is seldom or never a demand for mica of this size, so the sheets have to be cut down Most of the mines, as I have said, are exceedingly profitable, but sometimes one is found where the mica is so scattered that it would not be profitable to work it No money is wasted on such a mine, however, for an experienced mica miner can tell at a glance whether a mine will pan out all right or not "

On the Tail of His Coat

' Ever notice how much a man dislikes to have any one sit on his coat skirts in a streetcar?" asked the observant man as he folded his paper

"Because it will crease his coat?"

"No, I never thought it was that. It's a sort of natural impatience at being held down Then the offender is nearly always a woman, and nothing short of an earthquake will move a woman in a streetcar I always hold the skirt of my coat around me and watch for emergencies But I saw a funny thing the other day A woman who weighed 200 pounds sat down on a man's coat just as he was going to snatch it away The poor fellow fidgeted, but it was no use, he might as well have been nailed to the seat of the car When he reached his street he said to the woman, as he tried to edge away, 'Will you kindly release my coat?'

"She was deaf, it appears, for she never budged a step.

"'You're sitting on my coat, madam'

"'What does he mean?' she said to the car generally, 'what does the man want?'

"The conductor explained to her, and she rose as the man shot through the door to the sidewalk.

"'Why didn't he say what he wanted?' she asked. 'I thought he asked me something about a goat.'

"Now you notice, and you'll see how it annoys a man to be pinned down in that way. Women don't seem to care, for I've seen one of them sit on some other woman's new gown or cloak and she wouldn't seem to mind it a bit. But it's different with men."

GREAT COMMANDER.

THE JOY HE BROUGHT TO A BRAVE BOY AND HIS FATHER

Maurice Terraine's Interview With Washington—"Let Us Be Merry, For This My Son Was Dead and Is Alive Again; He Was Lost and Is Found"

In St Nicholas Sara King Wiley has a romance of the American Revolution entitled ' Maurice and His Father " A brave little English lad is separated from his father and falls into the hands of the Americans. His father afterward embraces the patriot cause and his son is restored to him through the medium of Washington, as shown in the following extract

Maurice was informed that General Washington was there showing the works to General Lafayette, and his heart began to flutter and thump within him

Barney was sitting beside him looking at his master with bright and loving eyes his little black nose quivering

' Barney," said the boy, "we're afraid, but we're not going to stop if we are '

And, picking up the dog he took his way through the rustling leaves that lay like heaps of gold toward the house which one of the soldiers from whom Maurice ventured to ask for directions, had pointed out to him

"Yes General Washington is there and alone " he was told.

Could he see him?

"Sure no, yo little bye " said the Irish sentry ' It s wore out the poor gintleman is already, and it s mesilf wouldn t bother with all thim jabbering Frinchmen!

Maurice was desperate.

'Oh, please!' he said. Beg Barney you beg too. '

The little dog sat up at once, with drooping paws

"Sure me own name's Barney And is your dog's name O'Reilly too? ' said the sentry

"Oh, if he is your namesake ' exclaimed Maurice, you must let him in! Oh see you can hold him while I go in! Maurice thought no one could resist such an offer

I ll see said the soldier, and he stopped within and, returning said 'Go on

Maurice yielded up Barney and stepped into the hall, went along it and paused just inside an open door He was trembling A voice said ' What is your errand? ' a voice even grave and rather severe

Maurice raised his eyes Just before the fireplace stood the great commander To the boy s excited thought he seemed even larger than he was Washington's hands were behind his back, his head some head bent a little forward

What is your errand my lad? ' said he again with a note of command in the tone.

Oh my father my father! he said ' I have been lost from him so very long!

Something in the thrilling child s voice, something in the piteous and forlorn expression of his face, went straight to the warm heart that the general carried beneath his calm exterior He crossed the room in quick strides, and, laying his hand on the boy's shoulder, said kindly

' My poor child!

This was too much Maurice had borne bravely the long strain of waiting, the repeated disappointments but the unexpected sympathy broke down his self possession He put his head in the crook of his arm and sobs came fast —sobs that shook him from head to foot. The general drew him aside, sat down in an armchair and taking the little hanging head in both his own said,

There, there stop crying and tell me all about it'

Maurice choked down his sobs and told his story At his father s name the general rose quickly

'Colonel Terraine s son! Why, then your father was here a short time ago. He may be up stairs now! '

Maurice forgot even the great chief and sprang for the door But Washington caught him by the arm

My dear boy—he does not know—I will go

Maurice stood still in the center of the room and pressed his hands hard together The general went out and up stairs. It seemed to Maurice that he stepped very slowly

Colonel Terraine sat in an up stairs room writing He laid down his pen and rose as the general entered.

' Colonel ' said Washington I have some wonderful news for you " He paused. The officer took a step forward and opened his lips but did not speak.

Come down stairs with me ' continued the general slowly and remember as you go that passage in the Scriptures, 'But the father said Let us be merry, for this my son —Colonel Terraine caught the back of a chair— ' for this my son— ' went on the sweet grave voice was dead, and is alive again. He was lost and is—found. "

Colonel Terraine stood an instant, with wide, questioning eyes. Then he rushed through the doorway and down the stairs. The general followed him quickly There was a loud cry as the colonel entered the room and Maurice sprang into his father s arms. General Washington closed the door and stood guard over it himself Barney, having escaped from the soldier tore in and the general stooped from his great height to pat the little dog If Barney had been a man he would have seen that there were tears in the bright blue eyes.

Heat and Silver

To read the inscription on a silver coin which by much wear has become wholly obliterated put a poker in the fire. When redhot, place the coin upon it, and the inscription will plainly appear of a greenish hue, but will disappear as the coin cools. This method was formerly practiced at the mint to discover the genuine coin when silver was called in.

A Winter Average

I have 400 fowls says a writer in Farm Poultry, 375 pullets and 25 3 year olds, all S. C White Leghorns. They are kept in 10 pens 40 in a place each pen being about 8 by 20 feet in size. The ration consists of wheat, which is by them about all the time, with a soft feed once a day, consisting of corn meal and middlings, 40 per cent each and ground oats, bran and B. B. B. to make the 100 per cent and about 25 pounds of green bone a week.

Several Auburn lads are missing from home and their absence is causing their parents much uneasiness Several of them, at least, are hiding from the police, being guilty of misdemeanors which might put them behind iron bars for a while The police were close on their track and they knew it The father of one of the boys was in Portland Thursday searching, but so far as learned he did not hear anything The boys' ages range from 16 to 18 years They have been carrying their fun too far and it is rumored that an example may be made of them

Several weeks ago a fellow about 35 years of age attempted a great swindle on a hotel keeper in Lewiston He represented himself as a reporter on the Journal and asked to have a check for $1, drawn in his name, and signed as he said, by his father The landlord declined to cash the check when the fellow asked him to hold it till Monday It is needless to say the whole thing was a fraud, and the check has never been called for

Two Young Elopers

The youngest eloping couple on record spent several hours at the Allegheny police station and were returned to their parents The would be groom was Charles M Douglas aged three years and his prospective bride was Margaret Carpenter, aged three years and six months

Both are blue-eyed, flaxen haired tots and appeared very much in love with each other They were indignant when prevented from going to a minister s to have the knot tied Miss Carpenter had her arm linked in that of her lover and they were walking hurriedly along North avenue Allegheny, heading for a minister s house when a lady met them and asked where they were going

' Margaret and me doin to det married spoke up Charles, while Margaret hung her head and blushed and said it was true

The lady gave the youthful elopers in charge of an officer who learned their name but they did not know on what street they lived At the police station they were handed over to the matron

Charles also told the matron he intend ed to marry Margaret He was a most affectionate lover, placing his arm about the little lady s waist, and was not a bit pleased when she made him remove the arm Charles admitted he was rather young to wed When asked what he wanted for a wedding outfit he said

A wagon with fifteen wheel to haul Margaret and her doll in

Margaret said she preferred a laughing and crying doll and a parasol for a trousseau

Charles was asked by Matron Kellog if he really and truly loved Margaret He promptly said ' Yes In answer to the question Margaret said No

Say yes, Charles put in coaxingly, and she did

Do you ever kiss Margaret Mrs Kellog asked

No he don t, Margaret put in I don t let him

I do when it gets dark, Charles said

Will you kiss her now if I give you a cent was asked Charles said he would and gave the lassie a hearty smack as if he was used to it After some coaxing Margaret kissed Charles, and then both waited to spend their penny for candy

The arrival of the parents interrupted the course of true love As Charles was trotted off by his mamma he declared he would yet wed Margaret

It Amused the Old Man

The old man came down to the suburban station leading a most reprehensible dog. Leading is hardly the word for in reality he dragged the unwilling animal after the fashion of a sled With coaxing words he lured the scraggy beast on, and finally he got it safely stowed under the bench on the shady side of the station He bought a paper then, and settled down to wait twenty minutes for the cityward train

Mr Huffman and Mr Jodyngs had marked the approach of the old man and had smiled somewhat at his trouble when the dog had pulled back with greatest force

It s funny isn t it said Mr Jodyngs ' that an otherwise reasonable and sane man will take up with such a dog as that and treat it as a pet '

Mr Huffman assented, and said he supposed the old man would go into paroxysms of wrath if anything were to happen to the dog That suggested an idea and Mr Jodyngs nearly burst with laughter as he thought upon that idea

Suppose we steal the dog and put it on the north bound train, and when the old man finishes his paper and goes to take the city train he will be furious ' This was Mr Jodyngs s idea, and Mr Huffman came near exploding, it was so funny Mr Huffman sat down next the old man, so as to conceal the workings of Mr Jodyngs and Mr Jodyngs, with suppressed snorts of laughter, untied the twine and hauled the dog around the corner of the station, and into the express office, where he paid a glad dollar and expressed the sorry beast to a fictitious John Smith at a station a dollar's worth up the line The old man continued reading while the up train stood at the platform and he did not wake up until the whistle of the incoming cityward engine was sounded at the road crossing Then he looked hastily for his dog

"Where's that dog? he asked of his city bound fellow townsmen, who had gathered about in obedience to the invitation of Mr Jodyngs With fierce peals of laughter Mr Huffman told him that the household pet was on the way to Milwaukee Mr Huffman explained the joke, and clapped the old man on the back in delight

The face of the latter was a study He looked at Mr Huffman wonderingly

' By thunder! he cried 'that's funny You see, I brought that dog to the station to day, intending to carry him as far in toward town as Jefferson Park and there I had intended to kick him off He's a blamed nuisance around the house, and I wanted to get rid of him the worst way Much obliged, Jodyngs "

But Mr Jodyngs with his mind dwelling on his dollar, was a pillar of self-kicking silence

The Rockland Courier Gazette says We have had occasion many times to write about the laziest man but there is a man living on Swan s Island who can justly lay claim to first prize The many ridiculous things he does to ward off work furnish constant food for conversation among his acquaintances Among other things he does is to wear mittens on the hottest days in summer This sounds funny, doesn t it? But he does it so he will not be troubled with the work of brushing off flies from his hands And as to going to the work of taking off his clothes he cannot think of such a thing It is too much work to even think about going up stairs to bed so he gently glides onto the lounge and there sleeps the sleep of the lazy The Swan s Island sports are making bets as to the first time he takes off his clothes and as for the mittens they will be serviceable by and by to keep his hands warm Can anyone tell of a lazier man If so we should like to hear about him

Uses of Emery

For many years the emery has been brought from Turkey and the Greek islands. Its value for cutting and polishing has been known since the beginning of history Very crude methods are in use for obtaining this substance for market. Enormous fires built on or against the rocks which are then broken or cracked by throwing jets of water against them Emery is one of the things which are as employed in polishing and cutting Being most tough it required a long time to find the efforts to put it in to available shape but at length it was cemented into disks and it was molded into wheels Emery wheels are a later day improvement. They are the most practical for all such uses because they are not affected by heat and the face is always kept As a cutting and polishing powder emery is of great use and emery sand papers is an important article of manufacture.—New York Ledger

"ALL WORKED OUT."

An Instructive Lesson in the Death Roll of Our Great Men.

Dr Greene's Nervura a Protection Against Premature Death. Value of Vigorous Nerves and Pure Blood.

In the death of great and gifted men and women who have filled the public mind and who are held in tender and tearful remembrances how many have gone because they were ' worked out? It is a lengthy and a sad list. We can easily recall many whom we have personally known who have seemed to wear their precious lives out all too soon because their deaths were premature The world feels their loss keenly for its sudden ending

They were not worked out they were tired out exhausted They stopped because they could go to no greater physical lengths Why? Their vitality was vitiated and lost Long years ago Dr Greene of 34 Temple Place Boston Mass studying this deep problem discovered its prime cause and at once set about its correction He found he seat of health to be strength and vigor of nerves and pure blood, and determined to discover a remedy that would energize the nerves and purify and enrich the blood which both l in taken into physical force that Dr Greene s Nervura blood and nerve remedy has attained its place as the leading authority on blood and nervous ailments, and so is sought as physician by people everywhere. He charges no fee for his opinion and can consequently be consulted FREE OF CHARGE by letter or in person

If you are worked out if weak nervous run down or you feel out of sorts or if you want to avoid the ills weakness and exhaustion so sure to come don t delay Get this grand restorer of health and strength, Dr Greene s Nervura blood and nerve remedy at once and it will make you well.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Stearns Circle of King's Daughters will meet with Mrs. R. A. Libbey on James street this evening. All members are urged to be present.

Bangor commandery, No. 613, United Order of the Golden Cross, will entertain Stillwater commandery at its hall on Main street this evening. A fine programme has been arranged.

Mr. T. J. Ferry, Maine Central engineer, was at Worcester, Mass., Sunday to attend a meeting of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. There were 800 engineers in attendance upon the meeting.

The Argus, speaking of Miss Charlotte Thorndike Sibley, who is to lecture here next Monday night, has the following: "Her descriptions were so clear and graphic that her audience could almost see them."

Capt. Fahey and Patrolman Mackie, of the night police force, returned yesterday morning from a two weeks' vacation trip to Boston and New York. They resumed duty yesterday.

At the Grace Methodist Episcopal church, Union street, this evening will be held the first social gathering of the season, for which a general invitation has been extended, and a pleasant occasion is assured to all who attend.

At East Dexter, Friday, September 4, Mr. and Mrs. Tibbetts, the parents of Mr. Clarence Tibbetts, aged respectively 84 and 79, celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their wedding day, by a gathering of the children and grandchildren.

Col. F. D. Pullen and Dr. A. C. Hamlin left yesterday for Boston on the steamer to attend the 27th annual reunion of the Society of the Army of the Potomac, which will be held at Burlington, Vt., on Wednesday and Thursday of this week. An elaborate programme has been arranged for the occasion by the committee of the society.

The members of the 26th Maine Regimental Association in the vicinity of Belfast were disappointed Friday in their attempt to attend the annual reunion at Rockport. Seventy-five people assembled on the wharf there waiting for the boat, when word was received that owing to rain and fog the Sedgwick would not come. Buckboards were hired and about 25 drove down.

A party of sportsmen including Sidney Besser, F. E. Gilbert, F. W. Besser, John W. Hainsworth, Frank S. Bowen, A. Ingraham, Jr., Thos. H. Mills, Albert Hainsworth and Walker Barbour, of Boston and Providence, were in the city Monday at the Penobscot Exchange. They left on the afternoon train for Moosehead Lake.

Mr. F. P. Denaco has returned from a several days' stay at Ashland, where the new mill is being built by the Ashland Manufacturing Company, which is composed of Bangor, Boston and St. John capitalists. The large crew of men employed on the site has just begun to put up the frame of the mill. The mill will be all closed in before snow comes.

The crew at work on the new iron railroad bridge across the river is now at work on the third span of the main bridge, two having been completed. Another crew is also at work on the deck span at the Bangor end and the whole structure will be in place in the course of six or seven weeks. The new bridge is a fine one and is a very great improvement over the old one.

Game Warden Benjamin Atwood, of Winterport, had a long chase after Hollis Jordan, of Waltham, a poacher, last week. He first got upon Jordan's track at Aurora and after following him all over Hancock county caught him at Spectacle pond. On Thursday Jordan was arraigned in the Bar Harbor municipal court and fined $40. He could not pay so went to Ellsworth jail.

A defective motor caused the postponement of the Phantoscope exhibition at The Norombega last evening, although the electrician labored faithfully to correct the error. It was some hours after the regular hour last evening before the trouble was overcome. The management, while deeply regretting the occurrence, can truly announce a fine exhibition this evening. The Bangor Band will supply the music.

The Orono fire department responded to a call Sunday forenoon about 10 o'clock. The blaze was in a house owned and occupied by Mrs. Melinda Hackett. The fire broke out in the roof around a chimney, which is supposed to have been defective. The roof was burned off but by prompt work on the part of the firemen much of the building was saved. There was an insurance of $400 on the building placed through the local agency of Albert White.

Bucksport Eagle: Some time ago it was discovered that on the Webster place in Penobscot near the Castine line there was what appeared to be a good vein of soft coal. More recent investigations go to show that the article may prove to be quite valuable. A gentleman from Pennsylvania is at present on the spot and looking into the matter with a possibility of purchasing. If such a mine was opened up and worked in Penobscot it would mean a help to business throughout this section.

"Some of the poaching prosecutions," says a recent visitor to the happy hunting and fishing grounds of Maine, "have a deeper motive behind them than appears on the face of things. That there are many violations of the game laws that go unpunished and are winked at in the woods regions is well understood. When some are brought to court, unless the State officials are in it there is pretty sure to be some further reason than the breach of the law. Sometimes it is a backwoods means of purifying the moral atmosphere. This was notably true of a Piscataquis prosecution of a year or two ago. A young sportsman was making himself altogether too much at home in the bosom of a settler's family and the matter became a neighborhood scandal. The offender paid little heed to the game laws and the first he knew he was 'sent up' with a good-sized fine on top of the imprisonment. It effectually squelched him in that region."

To-day Mr. Horace M. Pullen, the well known musician and teacher of dancing of Bangor, and Miss Lucy Hart, of Chelsea, Mass., will be married in Chelsea. The ceremony will take place in the residence of Judge Hart, the bride's father, and the house will be elegantly decorated for the occasion. Several Bangor people will attend the wedding, among them being Mrs. Frank D. Pullen and Miss Abbie Garland. Mrs. Isabelle, of Boston, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. George W. Field, on Broadway in Bangor, will also attend the wedding, having left Bangor on Monday morning for that purpose. A slight illness unfortunately prevents Mrs. Field and Dr. [illegible] from attending. Miss Hart is a [illegible]

The Mora company which played a two weeks' engagement in this city at The Norombega went to Calais yesterday to play there.

Prayers were offered yesterday forenoon over the remains of Mrs. Charles W. Buzzell, at her late residence on Jefferson street, by Rev. Mr. Mosher. The remains were taken to Bradford and will be interred there to-day.

Col. Harry D. Stewart, of the Second Regiment of the Uniformed Rank of the Knights of Pythias, with his staff, has received an invitation to be present at the annual field day exercises of the First Regiment of the same rank in Augusta on September 16. The colonel and members of his staff will accept the invitation.

Undertaker Michael Finnigan left his horse and team on Broad street about midnight and the horse wandered off to the railroad track and was struck by a train. One of the legs of the horse was broken and the wagon was broken up. Capt. Fahey put the animal out of his sufferings. It was a valuable animal and highly prized by Finnigan Bros.

Foot Ball Notes.

The candidates for the High School foot ball team came out in larger numbers yesterday than last week when only a few assembled on the Common. Among the old members who will train are Capt. Conners, McCann, Snow, Hal Hunt, Harry Hunt, Knaide and Crowley. Among the new candidates are Smith, Robinson and Burrill. Others will be out the present week.

Physical Director Bursley, of the Y. M. C. A., is starting in as coach for the team and is doing good work. As a number of positions will have to be filled by new players this year hard practice will be necessary. The first game will be played here next Saturday between the Oldtown team and the High School eleven. It will be a light practice game, being the first of the season.

The Maine State College eleven candidates under the energetic and thorough coaching of Abbott, tackle of last year's Dartmouth team, are making a good showing and the outlook for a strong team is very promising. Many of the old men will play and several promising freshmen may get a place on the team if they keep up their present work.

Noyes, Lawrence, Farnham, Sturgis, Libby, Webber, Ellis, Johnson, Hatch and Sawyer (captain) are among the old players who will make the team and new men are Stowe, Gilman, Stickney, Pierce, Howe, Bradford, Curtis, Palmer and Seavey.

The first game will be played with Bowdoin on October 3rd, probably in Bangor.

Excursion to Togus.

An enjoyable excursion from Bangor, Oldtown and way stations will occur to-day by the regular morning train leaving Oldtown at 5.55 a. m., Bangor 7.00 a. m., Waterville 9.00 a. m. Tickets for the round trip will be $2. Special arrangements have been made for a grand concert by the Togus Military Band, one of the finest bands in New England. This concert alone will be well worth the price of the ticket. Mr. B. L. Pennell, the well known Maine Central excursion agent, will personally conduct it and give his time to the comfort and pleasure of the party.

Our Own Folks and Other Folks.

Miss Marie H. Morton has returned from her vacation.

Mr. F. G. Prescott, of Exeter, was in the city yesterday.

Miss Mae Semple left Monday for Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

Mr. J. H. McGregor, of Montague, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. C. C. Everett and Miss Everett, of Cambridge, Mass., are in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Saville, of Gloucester, Mass., were in the city yesterday.

Miss Alice Dole, of Winchester, Mass., is visiting Miss Burpee on High street.

President Charles F. Meserve of Shaw University, Raleigh, N. C., is in the city.

Mr. George P. Gould of the Rines Co. returned Monday morning from New York.

Mrs. Fannie Adams will leave for Boston to-day by boat for a protracted visit.

Mr. W. I. Kellogg has returned to Boston, after a short visit at his former home.

Miss Elizabeth Wood, of Lewiston, who has been visiting here, has returned home.

Miss Elizabeth Sargent, of New York, is visiting Mrs. C. S. Lunt on High street.

Mr. Fred Sargent, of Lawrence, Mass., is visiting with friends in this city and Brewer.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Chapman have returned home from a visit in Camden and Rockland.

Mr. Thomas White and the Misses White have returned from a several days' stay in Boston.

Mr. G. J. Blanchard and Mrs. F. Blanchard, of Somerville, Mass., were in the city yesterday.

Miss Sadie R. Nickerson has returned home after a two weeks' vacation, visiting friends in Ellsworth.

Mrs. J. Roland Coulter left for Boston Monday morning for a few weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. A. K. Spratt.

Mrs. J. H. Adams and daughter and Miss Emily Sprague, of Rockland, who have been visiting in this city, have returned home.

Kennebec Journal: C. H. Pulsifer has returned from a visit at Bangor. Mrs. Pulsifer will remain in the Queen City two weeks longer on a visit.

Mr. Charles F. Kennedy, bookkeeper at the establishment of D. Bugbee & Co., is on a vacation trip to St. John, N. B., Halifax and other province towns.

Miss Jennie L. Brackett, of this city, will leave soon for Boston to pass the winter. Miss Brackett, who during the summer has been cashier at the White Star laundry, will take a position in the cashier's department of the Youth's Companion in Boston.

Mr. F. W. Flood, of Ellsworth Falls, principal of Gould's Academy, passed through the city Monday on his return to Bethel, having come home to attend the State election. He was accompanied by Mr. Winfred H. Lowell, of Penobscot, who enters Gould's Academy. In the same party were Mrs. Naburn Flood, mother of the principal, and Mrs. E. A. Frost, on the way to Waterville.

Giant Among Dwarfs.

The giant of schooners, the five masted Governor Ames, which arrived at this port Sunday, was visited by many people yesterday and during her stay here will be quite an attraction for those interested in shipping. The Ames is the largest schooner afloat and the only five master ever built. Her length over all is 265 feet and her gross tonnage is 1778.77 tons and she is a magnificent specimen of marine architecture, furnishing a spectacle of stately substantialness combined with graceful lines and a smart rig which is the admiration of all.

Just now she is low in the water with her load of coal but as she rises as she is unloaded the comprehension of her bulk will be easier. Some idea of the size of this leviathan as compared with other vessels can be gained from the statement that she can go less than 2 inches along her deck. She can hold nearly 5,000 tons of coal. She has in her hold now 3,780 tons for the Maine Central railroad.

is 2,543, which will be increased to about 2,600. L. L. Walton, Skowhegan; R. H. Reed, Harmony; Alonzo Burse, Pittsfield; H. S. Whiting, Norridgewock; C. C. Kingsman, Corinville; Danville S. Moore, Moscow, and probably George W. Weeks, of Fairfield, all Republicans, are elected representatives to the Legislature. The Republican plurality in the county in 1892 was 706.

Reed's Grand Plurality.

Portland, Me., Sept. 14. The result for Congressman in the 1st district with 2 small towns to hear from in York county gives Reed, 18,869; Staples, 8,480. Reed's plurality, 10,389.

Two years ago Reed's plurality was 8,185.

Figures Holding Up.

Portland, Sept. 14. 225 towns give Powers 58,450, Frank 23,641, Clifford 600, scattering 3,064. Against the same towns in '94, Cleaves 49,998, Johnson 22,058, scattering 5,507.

Plurality 34,809, against 27,940; a gain of 6,869.

If the remaining towns come in the same ratio of gain the total vote will stand about: Republican 81,000, Democratic 32,000, Gold Democrat 1,000, scattering 4,600. Total 118,600.

The Governor's vote in 1892 stood: Republican 67,900, Democratic 55,397, scattering 6,965. Total 130,262.

Milford's Vote.

Oldtown, Sept. 14. The vote of Milford was Powers 133, Frank 33, Bateman 2. For Congress, Boutelle 133, Chase 33, Chapman 2. For Legislature, Republican 134, Democrats 30.

Congratulations.

Augusta, Me., Sept. 14.

To Hon. C. A. Boutelle, Bangor.

Accept my personal and hearty congratulations on your magnificent triumph. It is a just and deserved tribute to your sturdy Republicanism and your high character.

J. H. Manley.

Calais, Me., Sept. 14.

Hon. C. A. Boutelle, Bangor.

Your plurality is six hundred and seventy-eight. Your speech helped us do it. Congratulations.

Jas. Crawford.

BANGOR'S SPLENDID VERDICT.

Magnificent Work in this City on Monday.

Monday was election day and a most important occasion all over the State, especially so as it is Presidential year. A feature which always has more or less to do with the size of the vote, is the weather and the clerk of this department did very well for the city and State as it was mild and pleasant all day, enabling the voters to come out in force.

Unusual local interest was taken in the election. While it was a foregone conclusion that almost the entire Republican ticket would be elected, there was a doubt in regard to the Legislative Representative ticket owing to the action of the bolters in getting their names upon the ballot.

The result of the election was a triumph for the regular Republican Representative ticket, by a pronounced majority, indicating the earnest feeling of the people upon this matter. A great effort was put forth by the opposition but it was of no use.

Each of the other officers voted for from Governor and Congressman down, received the usual compliment of a marked majority, as was anticipated.

There were many defective votes which were, of course, thrown out. In Ward Two some 27 were defective. Quite a number of them were marked with a a cross in both columns, marked Republican, and others had crosses after each name. Some 80 votes, clearly defective, were counted under protest. In Ward Seven there were some 76 defective votes, the most of which had crosses in the regular Republican column and the bolters' column and the regular Representative names scratched. In Ward Five 40 votes were thrown out as defective as they had crosses in both the Republican and bolters' columns. While 3 more had crosses over the bolters' column and the Democratic ticket.

Notwithstanding the large vote and great interest the election was a quiet and most orderly one. All day long citizens discussed the progress of the vote and its probable outcome and all sorts of rumors, wide of the mark, were afloat. It was not until the Board of Aldermen made the official announcement, however, that the result was definitely known.

The aldermen met at 8 o'clock but the ballot boxes came in slowly. It was not until almost 11 o'clock that a start was made on canvassing the returns, four boxes then being in. The others arrived while the returns were being read by the Mayor. The returns gave the following result:

AMUSEMENTS.

"The Cotton King."

"The Cotton King," a well known melo-drama, will be the attraction at the Opera House this evening.

"The Cotton King" is interesting to American audiences. First the leading character is a Yankee, John Osborne. His experiences lead an American atmosphere to the play which particularly fits it, and makes it doubly interesting to American audiences. He is surrounded by strong, cleverly drawn characters, typical of the classes they represent. It is no assumption on the manager's part to say that no melo-drama for years has been produced on a more elaborate scale than "The Cotton King." The landscapes are beautiful and the scene in the calico mill is very realistic. The cast is said to be an exceptional one.

Nellie McHenry.

Jolly Nellie McHenry in "A Night in New York" a merry conglomeration of music and dancing, a new play, comes to the Opera House Thursday and Friday nights. It is a tuneful comedy and is built for amusement purposes. It is full of pretty songs, graceful dances, and humorous situations and, to use a stage term is replete with funny business. It was written especially for Miss McHenry by H. Grattan Donnelly, with a strong up-to-date flavor, showing New York life as seen at the French Ball. The supporting company is said to be an unusually clever one and includes John Webster, Charles Morrison, Charles Eastwood, Joe Sparks, J. Hayes, Miss Henrietta Lee, Miss Fanny Brooks, Miss Viola Raymore, La Petite Rosa and others.

Caught in the Act.

Messrs. Palmer & Bussey, who have a grocery store on the Hampden road at Maplewood Park, went into their store last night late after being down town to hear the election news, when they discovered a burglar. They seized him and found he was Frank Duffy, a young man who lives on Sidney street. He had gotten in by a side window. He had some goods in his pocket and probably was surprised before being able to take more. The police were notified and went after the thief. This store has been broken into several times recently.

Ashland or Norcross Sept 17th.

One of the most pleasing features of the above named trip is that it allows the participant a choice between the wonderfully varied and picturesque ride through the "great woods" with their fast changing colors and into Aroostook county to one of its newly discovered and rapidly developing towns or the shorter trip to Norcross and the longer time among its woods and lakes.

Those who decide to go to Norcross will arrive at that place about 9 o'clock and may return on the regular train at 4.25 or on the special from Ashland in the early evening, giving them from seven to ten or eleven hours to spend in this most interesting game region, time enough to locate a deer even though no shooting can be done.

The great event of the Ashland trip will be the Young People's Rally in the Hall to be addressed by Rev. Dr. Taylor, of Boston, Miss Cora B. Bickford, Pres. Maine Y. P. S. C. E., Rev. A. E. Kingsley and Rev. J. M. Frost. The fare for either trip is $1.50. At Ashland the ladies of the Congregational church will serve a warm dinner at 25 cts. per plate, the proceeds to aid in their church building enterprise.

Base Ball Notes

It looks as though the New England league would excel the Virginia league of last year in its contributions to national league material. Here are Klobedanz, Geier, Lajoie, Yeager, Johnson, Weithoff, Wheeler, Simon, with chances that Waldron, Fitzmaurice, Lippert, Duncan and others may join the forces.

Jim Korwan was Nadeau's best man at the wedding in Brockton Wednesday. They "raised the roof" for long Jeems.

This will go down in base ball history as the fastest New England league ever organized.

Camp Benson Association.

At the annual meeting of the Camp Benson Association, at Newport, on Saturday, the 12th instant, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, William Harris.
First Vice President, F. E. Sprague.
Second Vice President, W. B. Moor.
Third Vice President, F. A. Chase.
Secretary, E. Hill.
Treasurer, J. N. Given.
First Trustee, Abner Shepherd.
Second Trustee, J. H. French.
Third Trustee, E. R. Carr.
Military Department—Colonel, Ezra Withee; Lt. Col., H. H. Blackwell; Major, G. G. Dodge; Surgeon, F. E. Sprague; Chaplain, J. W. Webster; Quartermaster, J. T. Johnson.

Excellent Telephone Service.

In addition to the excellent telegraph service regarding the election received yesterday by THE WHIG, it, in common with the other patrons of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company, is greatly indebted to Manager Collamore of that company for the fine reports by telephone from many places. The service was early, prompt and in every way most satisfactory. The service was highly appreciated.
